

Isaac Jewelers

More than a shiny stone, a gem on Camelback Road

Frank Isaac has been a cornerstone of the Scottsdale business community since 1996, when he opened his first shop in town on 5th Avenue. As owner of Isaac Jewelers, one at Kierland Commons, Scottsdale Waterfront and The Watch Co. also at Kierland, he believes in quality, elegance and luxury coming together to create exceptional jewelry. With this philosophy, it's no surprise that models in the Spring into Summer fashion show on May 8 at Hotel Valley Ho will be wearing jewels exclusively from Isaac Jewelers.

With one successful boutique already established in Kierland Commons, Isaac opened a second luxury boutique in the Scottsdale Waterfront bringing his exceptional taste and talent to downtown Scottsdale. Isaac has created award-winning custom creations offering timeless pieces to his customers. In addition to his original designs, Isaac has a vast collection of brand-named jewelry such as Kabana, Baccarat, Leslie Greene, Lagos, Cornelis Hollander, Frank Reubel and more. The Scottsdale Waterfront boutique offers fine jewelry, fine watches, bridal designs as well as custom designs. Isaac caters to each client's individual taste, whether it's traditional or the latest trends in contemporary jewelry. It is fairly common to see celebrities shop at these fine boutiques. Isaac encourages customers to be his guest and experience the Isaac family tradition. Isaac Jewelers is located in the Scottsdale Waterfront at 7135 E. Camelback Road, Suite 135.
