Beautiful diamond jewelry is a gift that speaks volumes to its recipient. Since its inception in 2003, Isaac Jewelers' custom designs have been helping to make each heartfelt sentiment unique, each special occasion a little more special. And now, thanks to a dynamic new partnership with Carat Smart™, one of the world's top diamond wholesale companies, clients are able to fully personalize their jewelry from beginning to end – at a price that's as lovely as the finished product.

With an unbelievable selection of over one thousand loose diamonds in stock at Isaac Jewelers, you can select the gem that's exactly what you've been envisioning. Each brilliant, exceptional, high grade diamond is just waiting to become the sparkling centerpiece in a wearable work of art.

If you think that such remarkable jewelry has to come at an exorbitant cost, think again. Isaac Jewelers is already renowned throughout the Valley and beyond for providing exquisite, heirloom-quality jewelry at a price well below that of its competitors. But because of its powerful pairing with Carat Smart™, Isaac is able to offer diamonds at an even better price – a cost that's 30 to 40 percent below any retailer, and 10 to 15 percent below any diamond wholesale website. With such a vast assortment of premium diamonds, there's one to suit every taste and budget.

And if you're overwhelmed by the selection, there's no need to choose blindly. Isaac Jewelers employs a staff of certified diamondologists: knowledgeable, highly-trained professionals who specialize in diamonds.
